RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On May 27, 2016, Sharon G. Ortagus (“petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of receiving an influenza (“flu”) vaccine on October 13, 2015. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On September 7, 2016, respondent filed her Rule 4(c) report in which she concedes that petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

4(c) Report at 1.³ Specifically, respondent concluded that petitioner suffered SIRVA and that a preponderance of the evidence indicates that the injury was causally related to the flu vaccine Id. at 5. Respondent further agrees that petitioner met the statutory requirements by suffering her condition for more than six months. Id.

In view of respondent's concession and the evidence before me, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

³ The Rule 4(c) report, on page 1 and page 5, incorrectly references the date of vaccination as November 10, 2014. The flu vaccine was administered to petitioner on October 13, 2015. See Petition at 1; Pet. Ex. 1 at 1.
